

it's time to breathe 8 - flutes

originally for two whistlers

eva-maria houben

© edition wandelweiser 2020

catalogue number ew16.353.8

it's time to breathe (1-8)

a collection for duos

eva-maria houben

2020

it's time to breathe again and together.

inhaling and exhaling the world.

conspiratorial meetings.

finding places and islands of time.

time for each other; peaceful, silent places for each other.

finding ways to say "NO" and "ON".

spending time together—hopeful, without fear.

this collection is a declaration of love to beauty.

1) pan's hour

2) forlorn island

3) blue

4) pebbles

5) still alive

6) far off

7) the whirlwind's bride

8) flutes

flutes

originally for two whistlers

eva-maria houben

2020

the rustling reed became pan's consolation.

at the same time, it became the sign of absence.

the flute of reeds called the loved one again and again; it never got tired of calling.

alternately whistling two phrase melodies.

some silence in between the phrases, no silence in between the melodies.